

SOMETIMES the most simple question becomes the most provoking, especially when one becomes frustrated in trying to find the right answer... and can't.

Admittedly that is not a very profound statement.

It wasn't meant to be. It was just our way of explaining that when Mrs. Dot Vierra, of 1497 Hacienda, called us the other day to find out what the time difference was between here and Vietnam, we couldn't tell her.

We thought we might find the answer in our reference library. However, we suggested that she call one of the airlines or the airport and she could get the answer immediately.

Dot followed our suggestion. Then she called us again.

She explained that she had called four different places, including two airlines and an airport.

And she had received answers, ranging from 20 hours ahead of our time to 10 hours behind.

SHE was worse off than when she started out.

She mentioned that she had even resorted to the "action line" run by the SJ News, to get help.

But she was not building up her hopes.

She might get even a fifth different answer.

Meanwhile back at our own reference library at least we were getting a time refresher course.

We learned that Greenwich, England, is recognized as the prime meridian of longitude and that the world is divided into 24 zones, each 15-degrees of an arc, or one hour of time apart.

THE MERIDIAN of Greenwich (0°) extends through the center of the initial zone.

The zones to the eastward are number one to 12 with the prefix "minus" indicating the number of hours to be subtracted and the same idea going westward with the numbers having a "plus."

All well and good. But trying to fit Vietnam into the picture, sort of stopped us.

We did find out that when it is 9 a.m. here, it's midnight in Bangkok.

But what that actually means to Saigon on the clock, we still don't know for sure.

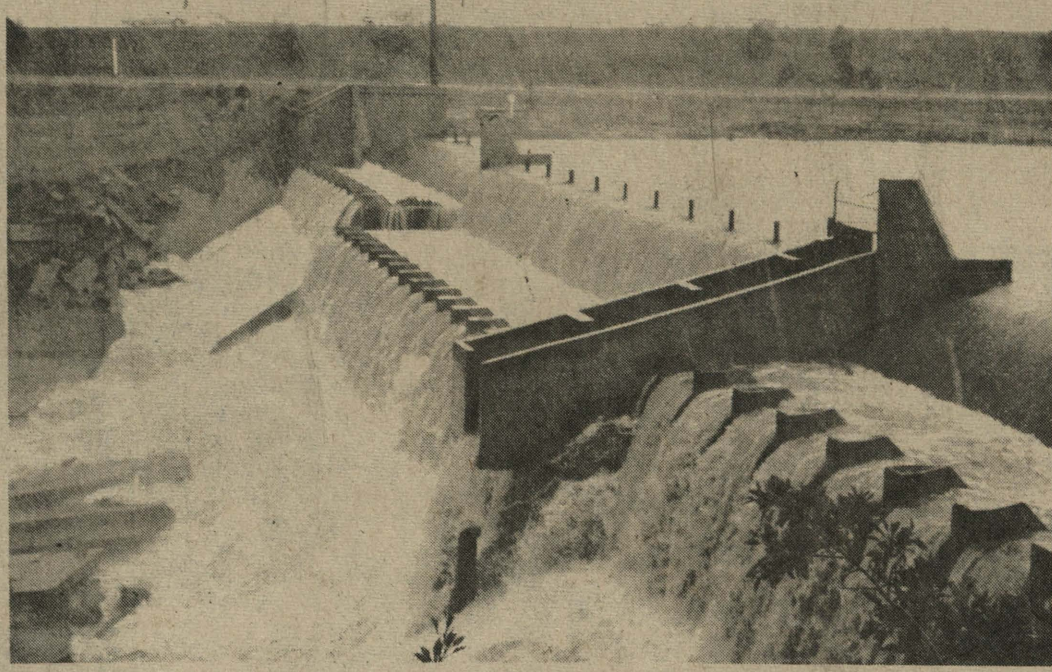

We are still looking.

ONE OF THE popular and traditional features of Campbell Drugs at Easter is the "Easter Bunny Delivery Service" that the store offers.

"Bunnies" hippity-hop into homes with gifts on Easter that have been ordered from the store, much to the delight, of course, of the small fry in the household.

This year, Marilyn Means, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Means of the Campbell Drugs, who is in her last semester in pharmacy at University of Pacific, was one of the bunnies. She was home for Easter week and as a pharmacist-to-be was helping out at the store. (As a

Executive board begins civic job

Members of the 14-member executive committee, appointed by the City Council last week as a forerunner to Campbell's Citizens Advisory Committee of at least 60 that will be formed to study this city's capital improvement program, swung into action Tuesday night (after press time).

The executive committee, headed by Don Hebard, of 205 Calado, as general chairman and Mrs. Jeanette Watson, of 61 Catalpa Ln., as vice-chairman, is composed of representatives from the 12 geographical areas into which the city has been divided.

Ten of the 12 representatives were originally named to the group. This week Rex Jeffers, of 162 Catalpa Ln., a local merchant, accepted the area #7 chairmanship (west of Winchester to San Tomas Rd. and south of Campbell Ave.).

Oleg Lubeckis, an industrialist at 511 Division St., will head area #6 (industrial area, east of Winchester from Camden south to the city limits). At last night's meeting, Mayor Ralph Doetsch was scheduled to welcome the group and City Manager Bob Stephens to outline the background that led to the creation of the citizens committee for a study program.

Chairman Hebard was to describe the overall purpose for the study of the capital improvement program under a sub-committee system for the four basic phases: (1) finance; (2) streets; (3) parks and recreation and (4) public facilities.

The functions of the executive board was also to be explained and a personnel unit was to be appointed to direct the recruitment and assignment of the members to the general citizens committee.

Another group from the executive committee was to be named to recommend the rules and procedures for operation and adoption of the final report that is tentatively scheduled for the latter part

Police conduct hunters' safety course Saturday

Captain Carl Arnold and Officer Paul Schommer of the Campbell Police Department will conduct a six-hour hunter's safety course in the council chambers of the city hall on Saturday, April 8.

Charge for this course will be 50¢ per person.

This one-day course will be open to youngsters 12 years of age or older who want to obtain a hunting permit. This will be an all day session beginning at 9 a.m. and concluding at 4 p.m. with an hour lunch break from 12 noon to 1 p.m. Youngsters may bring sack lunches if desired, the police suggest.

No guns will be permitted, they add.

Those wishing to attend may sign up at the Campbell Police Department, 75 N. Central.

At Council meeting Monday

City gavel may change hands

If City Council members follow a basic policy-change suggested last year when Ralph Doetsch was elected mayor, a new "council chairman" or mayor will be named next Monday night, April 10, breaking a 15-year tradition of each mayor serving for at least two years.

Doetsch has been this city's seventh mayor. Indications are that Councilman Ed Rogers, who is completing his seventh year on the council and has not yet handled the gavel, will be named mayor.

Since incorporation in 1952, Campbell's council has "organized" every two years, coinciding with the municipal election. However, it has been "policy" only and not "law" that has governed the procedure. Last year, when Doetsch was named presiding officer, succeeding Charlie Rose, council members indicated that they would change to the one-year method in the future.

EXPRESSWAY-CAMPBELL

Another highlight of next Monday's meeting will be the report of Bill Wren, public works director, on the present condition of the San Tomas Expressway-Campbell Ave. intersection pertaining to the pedestrian crossing.

The fence on Campbell Ave. east of Virginia has been moved back which "opens" the intersection. Because the cross-walk previously had been obscured, the council had authorized a crossing guard to protect

Tree-planting, clean-up projects get big boost

Spearheaded by service clubs and other civic organizations, under the direction of the newly-formed "Citizens Committee for City Beautification," Campbell's second annual clean-up, tree-planting project takes the spotlight this month.

The committee meets tonight at 7:30 at the city hall to outline definite plans for the clean-up, tree-planting-beautification campaign.

Saturday, April 22, has been set for the communitywide convergence on Los Gatos Creek (if the rain quits by that time) to plant trees and clean-up the general creek bank area, a "crusade" that was started last year and which proved highly successful.

As part of the general improvement program for the city, the Campbell Rotary, under the chairmanship of Bud Allen, has undertaken the project of placing 28 trees in redwood tubs along both sides of Campbell Ave.

Inclement weather prevented club members last Saturday from "planting" the trees, but weather permitting, the Rotarians will put them in place this Saturday, April 8.

The trees already have been "planted" in the tubs, which were constructed by Rotary members as a club work project extending over a number of weekends.

High school district acts to combat youth drug use

Special steps are being taken in the six schools of the Campbell Union High School District to combat the threat of narcotics use by students, according to Superintendent Laurance J. Hill.

Hill said that he has assigned Hack Bowen, Westmont High School teacher and athletic coach, to new duties in the district office.

Bowen, who has been teaching sophomore science, was released from that duty at Westmont for the purpose of "becoming knowledgeable" in the reasons for the use of LSD and marijuana, and to "see if we can understand why there is a trend toward their use."

Bowen will begin by writing a new sophomore science curriculum for the six existing high schools, and for Branham High School, which opens in the fall. He will follow this task by setting up science curricula for junior and senior classes also, he said.

The purpose, Bowen continued, is to "approach the problem on the scientific level" and, at the same time, approach it also through the sociology classes, in discussions of the social problems involved.

Liaison has been established between the school district and police narcotics staff workers. Bowen said he has talked to both adults and teenagers involved with LSD, marijuana and heroin in an effort to gain

"verge on the psychotic."

The district's program, being supervised by James Gillespie, former board member now supervisor of physical education, "is still in the investigative stage," according to Bowen, "and we are becoming as knowledgeable as we can."

This is C. of C. Week

This is Chamber of Commerce Week. (April 2-9).

It has long been our conviction that a progressive and active Chamber of Commerce working closely with an interested city administration can accomplish most of the objectives that are necessary for sound and progressive community.

We sincerely believe that in the City of Campbell the relationship between the city administration and the C. of C. that now exists will be beneficial to all the citizens of the community.

Maybe it is because in Campbell there are so many challenging aspects that the C. of C. and the city administration are so closely allied.

Or maybe it is because all civic-minded people are convinced that there are common goals that must be attained and if this community is ever going to pull itself up by its own bootstraps, it will take the combined and coordinated efforts of all those interested to reach the goals.

The Chamber of Commerce believes firmly in the involvement of all interested citizens in civic projects.

True, a Chamber of Commerce must constantly strive to improve the business and industrial climate of a city.

But that alone is not enough.

A C. of C. must also do a job for the average citizen. It must stimulate civic pride by every means at its command.

For it is by this cultivation and development of civic pride that the community will move ahead.

We believe that the program that has been outlined for the Campbell Chamber of Commerce which includes the involvement of citizens in worthwhile civic projects; the promotion of the business and industrial phases of the community and an overall coordination of all facets of the community is a commendable one and deserving of the support of not only the business, industrial and professional people but the entire community.

Although the membership of the Chamber of Commerce has increased at a rapid rate during the past few years, there are still a number of business people and others who are not on the membership roster.

The Chamber of Commerce is actually the only civic group existing in this community whose sole objective is to make this a better community in which to live and work.

But to do the job properly, the C. of C. must have an active and aggressive membership representative of all phases of community life.

The Chamber of Commerce plays a vital role in the development of this community and through its committees touches on all phases of civic betterment.

The organization, however, needs the support of all. And as we commend the C. of C. during this special week for its efforts to build a better community, we urge those of you who are not yet members to join this civic organization.

The following proclamation issued by the mayor for Chamber of Commerce Week emphasizes the excellent relationship between the city administration and the Chamber of Commerce.

PROCLAMATION

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WEEK

WHEREAS, Campbell is proud of its Chamber of Commerce for its efforts in making our City a balanced community and a better place in which to live and work; and

WHEREAS, the Campbell Chamber of Commerce has taken an active part in all phases of our community's development and its more than 280 members have been in the forefront of every worthwhile civic project undertaken in Campbell; and

WHEREAS, our Chamber of Commerce has championed the free enterprise system, encouraged private initiative and provided the organizational framework necessary to make the business community an effective partner in our civic, cultural, economic and educational activities. And, further, those of us in government have benefited by the counsel of the Chamber when matters of common interest have been under consideration.

NOW, THEREFORE, in appreciation of the contributions made by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce to the progress of our City, I, Ralph Doetsch, Mayor of City of Campbell, do hereby proclaim the week of April 2-9, 1967 as in Campbell. And, in issuing this proclamation, call upon all our citizens, organizations and institutions to recognize this special week and to join in its observance.

After making her final delivery, Marilyn, on the spur of the moment, made an unscheduled stop in at a restaurant where a number of families were having Easter breakfast.

IN HER BUNNY SUIT, she hopped from table to table and naturally, the kiddies there had a ball.

Unknown to Marilyn, her dad and mother were at the restaurant at the same time and watched this impromptu bunny-table-hopping.

When Marilyn learned that...

Well, have you ever seen a red-faced Easter Bunny?

EACH TIME San Jose has a municipal election, we become provoked by the lack of knowledge the candidates for the San Jose City Council seem to have as to the boundaries of their city.

Scattered throughout Campbell in the current San Jose election campaign, numerous political signs extolling the virtues of the various candidates for council and mayor of San Jose.

For the life of us we can't figure the percentage.

Unless those San Jose city council candidates know something we don't know, no Campbell voter can cast a ballot in their election.

And it gries us no end to see our landscape cluttered with the candidates' signs from another city.

IF WE interpret correctly the new city sign ordinance that is about to be adopted, such political stupidity will be prohibited when the law goes on the books. And, it can't come too soon to suit us.

The new ordinance will permit only political signs "designed to influence the action of the voters of this city."

By no stretch of the imagination, it seems to us, can that be construed to include a San Jose council candidate.

POLICE CHIEF John Morgan has undertaken a tremendous task for himself by becoming a one-man speaking bureau in an effort to acquaint the public with the problem of drug abuse among the teenagers.

His message is a sincere one and one that every community organization should hear.

John is so dedicated to his objective that he is "booked" night after night. The size of the organization does not matter. He just wants to reach the people who should be concerned.

The one man's effort to combat a deplorable situation by doing something about it, in our opinion, is one of the most commendable projects ever undertaken by any single public official.

From the response of the people, it is apparent that he is making headway.

And he will make more as he continues in his back-breaking "crusade."

Provided his throat and back hold up, that is.

Planners sail through agenda in record time

In contrast to some meetings in the past few months, the Planning Commission on Monday night sailed through its agenda in record time.

With newly-appointed commissioner Merrill Grim in his seat, the commission also had a full membership for the first time in several months.

The commission approved plans for a tri-plex located at 105 Superior Dr. submitted by Al Davis and for the proposed new Standard Station at Parr and Winchester.

The service station plans, modified from the original request, included a small "chevron" sign and island canopies only.

Approved also were the plans of R. E. Carnett for 15 residential dwellings at 290 W. Rincon. But a number of residents of the adjacent area present at the meeting indicated they were skeptical on some of the phases of the construction.

The commission also approved a fascia sign for Campbell Moving Co., at 126 Harrison and also for a variance for the First Free-Will Baptist Church at Rincon and Third. The variance will allow the church, thwarted in any other expansion plans, to add a second floor in the building for classes.

Approved also was the tract for the Forman Development Co. off Union Ave., although the applicant was not satisfied with the condition specifying underground utilities.

The commission continued until April 17 action on the plans for Der Wienerschnitzel for a restaurant at Bascom and Fewtrell and also the zone change request for Jack Dawson for properties on Campbell and Dot avenues on which a service station and residential units are planned.

Market robbery

An armed robber wearing a nylon stocking mask held up the Stop and Go Market at 1859 Bucknall Rd. Monday night.

The clerk, John Andrew Arce, 33, was alone in the store and mopping the floor, when he was accosted by a dark-complexioned young man in a tan cordoroy jacket and light colored pants armed with a revolver.

The suspect forced the clerk to empty the cash register of $135 in currency.

Sunday school students tour Goodwill plant

A visit to two major work training centers of Goodwill Industries of Santa Clara County in San Jose recently helped Sunday School students of the First Methodist Church of Campbell visualize some of the current lessons being taught them.

"Understanding how Goodwill job training benefits handicapped people will help our Sunday School students learn how God works through people," Mrs. Betty Rae Smith, Sunday School teacher, explained.

Other teachers making the trip were Mrs. Louise Snider, Mrs. Terry Jones, Mrs. Marge Lovell and Terry Tanner. Assisting them during the visit were Mrs. Mary Muller, Marcia Lines, Dorothy Miller, Phyllis Mapa, Don Mortensen and Don Brondyke.

The visitors were welcomed by Raymond D. Healy, director of program development for Goodwill. They were shown a sound/slide presentation titled, "The Goodwill Story," which details and explains the work of the vocational rehabilitation agency.

Later, they saw firsthand the work being done by Goodwill in behalf of vocationally handicapped men and women of Santa Clara and San Benito counties.

Shown explaining the work is Ivree Phillips, sorting supervisor for Goodwill, left rear. Terry Tanner, rear center, and Mrs. Betty Rae Smith, accompanied this group on its tour.

NEIGHBORHOOD #15 All Brownie Scouts of Neighborhood 15 will have a "special" night out with their fathers tonight for the annual Father-Daughter Banquet. Two separate banquets will be held. One will be at San Tomas School and the other at Rolling Hills Jr. High School.

The Brownies have spent weeks in preparation for this event by making program covers, table decorations and name tags. Each troop will present some form of entertainment for their fathers and guests. It's a big night for the Brownies and excitement is mounting!

* Junior Scout Troop 704, Bucknall School, paid an Easter visit last Thursday to the Odd Fellows Home in Saratoga. The girls sang songs and passed out colored eggs and cards which they had made. They also visited the hospital unit and passed out cards to the sick and talked with them.

* Troop 211, Hazelwood School, made a trip to the Pinnacles National Monument during Easter Vacation. The girls left from the school Monday, March 20 and returned Wednesday, March 22. Monday was spent getting acquainted with the site and setting up camp. The girls worked in patrols doing their own cooking and housekeeping.

The highlight of the trip was the hike to the High Peaks on Tuesday, ending by way of the caves and high adventure (the lights were out for part of their trip through the caves).

On the way home on Wednesday, the girls stopped at the site of an old Indian village for lunch; then on they went to San Juan Bautista Mission for an hour of sightseeing before returning home.

Those participating were: Sally Jo Allen, Pattie Allen, Jean Bicoeca, Debbie Blake, Delores Barbosa, Terrie Brunelli, Lynn Capodiece, Mabel Carpenter, Paula Carpenter, Deborah Clapes, Dorothy Clapes, Rene DeMar, Janice Duncan, Joan Evans, Deborah Cross, Wendy Hofheins, Wendy Groot.

Library patrons may now borrow phonograph records

The Campbell Public Library, 349 E. Campbell Ave., announces a new service. Beginning this week anyone in the ninth grade or over who holds a library card may borrow phonograph records.

The basic record collection includes classical music, (symphonies, cantatas, chamber music, vocal concerts, operas), musical shows, spoken records (poetry, plays), children's records, jazz and folk music.

Borrowers may keep the records for one week and they are not renewable. The fines of five cents per day per record with a limit of the price of the record will be enforced. Failure to pay will result in loss of patrons' borrowing privilege.

Special care must be given to the records by the borrowers, such as to guard against scratches; keep records away from sun and artificial heat and leave the record in its jacket inside the plastic cover.

Two single records or one record album may be borrowed at any one time. The library hopes the public will use the books which complement the record collection.

Strumming guitars, humming harmonicas and a twanging banjo or two will highlight Campbell's second annual Folk and Blues Concert this Friday night at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria.

A wide variety of local talent promises an evening of fun and entertainment for all. The affair was made possible by last year's smashing success, and this year's show is expected to be every bit as good, if not superior, to last year's. Due to the lack of communication concerning the 1967 "after-graduation" party, the deadline for the purchase of bids has been set back to April 30.

The all-night party at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley, will feature a midnight buffet supper, dancing, games, prizes and a last get-together for graduating seniors. The cost to each senior is $12. For further information, seniors, call either 378-6498 or 379-3872.

Intermittent drizzles

throughout the past week served to emphasize the dismal week experienced by Campbell High athletic teams. Both their contests delayed one day by the rains, the varsity tennis and baseball squads lost close decisions to Irvington on Wednesday.

Friday's track meet with Camden was cancelled, but the swimmers destined to get wet anyway, went on with their battle only to lose to the Cougars. After calling off their Saturday night game with Bellarmine because of poor field conditions at Washington Park, the varsity baseball team invited Sunnyvale down for nine innings Saturday afternoon and lost 2 to 1.

The only bright spot seemed to be a Tuesday afternoon victory over Irvington by the Soph-Frosh nine.

This week will see a near-full slate of league contests as the tennis and baseball teams open their league schedules. Thursday's calendar finds tennis and varsity baseball at home against Camden and Soph-Frosh baseball at Camden.

A home meet for the swimmers against Del Mar's Dons and a track meet on the Del Mar oval headline Friday's events. Action continues next Tuesday, April 11, with varsity tennis and baseball at Los Gatos. All events will begin at 3:30 p.m.

DINNER PREPARATIONS--These three young ladies, members of the Debs, at Campbell High School, are learning to set an attractive dinner table in preparation for the spaghetti dinner to be served by students of the high school's home economics department, on Wednesday, April 12, at 6 p.m.

Kessler and Jane Titus. Tickets for the event may be purchased at the main office of Campbell High School or from any girl in the home economics dept.

Westmont High School proudly presents the smash Broadway musical, "The Pajama Game," Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, April 6, 7, 8 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Under the direction of Susan Hale and Gary Kenyon, lead roles will be played by Bob Gunter as Sid Sorokin, Jan Zanher as Babe Williams, Jeff Pond as Prez, Harlan Edson as Mr. Hasler and Kathy Boyd as Gladys.

Tickets may be purchased from any cast member, or are available at the door for $1.50, or student body card holders $1.

Remember, that's this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, April 6, 7 and 8 at 8 p.m.

As a new school, Westmont has been operating under a temporary accreditation. Last week, the accreditation committee completed its report and presented it to the administration and student council.

The report will also be sent to the California State Department of Education for approval. Warren Conrad, prinicipal, said that the report was highly commendable and that Westmont will become fully accredited with little difficulty.

Scott Porter and Gretchen Stolle, student body president and secretary, respectively, toured the eight schools in the West Valley Athletic League with the student body officers of the other seven schools in judging for the Clean Campus contest. This is the first of three tours, and results will be announced in May.

Last Wednesday, members of the English literature classes journeyed to the Circle Star Theatre in San Carlos to attend the National Shakespearean Company's Production of "Much Ado About Nothing".

Friday night the "Tortoise Monks" provided sounds for the dance sponsored by the yearbook staff to raise money to overcome a $300 deficit.

Girls interested in trying out for Song Girl and Cheerleaders have been attending an after school clinic to learn the fundamentals before tryouts in May.

All Pacific Telephone residential customers on the Peninsula, Santa Clara Valley and East Bay will begin receiving detailed billing of multi-message units this month.

Detailed billing by the company's accounting department actually will begin for message unit calls billed on or after April 1 but the first bills bearing the information will not be received by customers until about April 10.

Itemized billing will enable the customers to see the number of units charged for each call made to Bay Area points outside his local calling area. Information provided will be the number of units, the date the call was made and the number called.

Cost of each message unit is 4.05 cents.

1 YEAR AGO

Thirty-eight new Chamber of Commerce members were added to the Campbell rolls last week as the result of an intensive one-day membership drive.

Consideration of matters concerned with the proposed bond election for the district is one of the main items listed on the agenda for the special meeting of the board of trustees of West Valley College tomorrow.

Sparked by official action of the City of Campbell and with the anticipation and hope that all civic organizations, clubs and residents will take an active part, an ambitious month-long clean-up campaign is scheduled for April.

5 YEARS AGO

In keeping with the physical fitness program as outlined recently by President Kennedy, television station KGO and the Bay section of the California Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation have scheduled a series of daily exercises which are demonstrated by students from the various Bay area schools (including the Campbell Union Elementary School District) scheduled at 6:45 a.m. every morning.

Dr. Edward Rogers, local councilman, has written an article on "Brazil, New World City Planning Pioneer," which appeared in the March issue of the Western City Magazine, now on city manager desks all over the country.

Ralph Doetsch, write-in candidate for the Campbell City Council, announced this week that he is and always has been interested in the growth and improvement of the city.

10 YEARS AGO

Postmaster Ira H. Grim, who retires as Campbell postmaster this weekend after serving in that office here for 22 years, will be honored at a dinner party at the Villa Felice next Tuesday.

For the first time in the city's history, the City Council on Monday night condemned two buildings as public nuisances.

Voters in the Santa Clara Water Conservation District gave the $3 million bond issue the necessary two-thirds majority on Tuesday. But it was close. The issue squeezed by with a 68.1 per cent favorable vote.

15 YEARS AGO

In a special telephone call to the Campbell Press, Assemblyman

Charles S. Gubser and Richard Carpenter of the League of California Cities, announced the introduction in a special session of the California State Legislature, of two bills which directly pertain to monies to be allocated to the new City of Campbell.

Special invitees to the centennial birthday tribute to the bayside community of Alviso were the new city officials of the City of Campbell represented by Councilman Joseph Dahl, City Treasurer E. C. Merrill, and City Clerk Mrs. Viola Krug.

Two things seemed certain at the second informal gathering of Campbell's City Council last Monday in Councilman Joseph Dahl's real estate office. Campbell needs an attorney to put the city on an operational basis and a city accountant to set up an administrative code for the local government.

Salvation Army Spring Salvage Drive... This Week

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

Though President Johnson's budget provided for considerably less, OEO Director Sargent Shriver urgently wanted $200 million for migrant programs in the war on poverty. For some time now I have suspected that funds committed to this program were used to promote the unionization of farm workers, but until recently I had no concrete evidence.

There is nothing wrong with agricultural workers organizing themselves, but there is everything wrong if it is done at taxpayers' expense. It would be unfair if federal money were granted an employers' organization to fight unionization, and it is equally unfair for unions to be subsidized by the taxpayer.

Recently I reported on my visit to the California Self Help Service Corps in Morgan Hill which had "graduated" thirty-four trainees to work with the poor. The cost of training each graduate will reach almost $11,000 per person, all of which is financed out of federal poverty money.

One of the trainees, a Mr. James Mason, entered the school last fall and is completing his training in the field while receiving a salary (from taxpayers' money) of $400 per month. Though officials of the school in Morgan Hill violently protested any suggestion that they were attempting to assist labor unions in organizing, I have in my files copies of correspondence between Mr. Bill O'Rear, Organizing Director, Local 458 of the State, County and Municipal Employees, and Mr. Mason which clearly establish that Mason was an organizer for that union while he was receiving federal pay at the Morgan Hill school. I have photographs showing Mr. Mason in a picket line at that time.

The Bakersfield Californian for October 23 identified Mr. Mason as a union field representative and repeated the identification on October 26. During the period when he was organizing refuse workers in Delano and Bakersfield, Mason worked in contact with his Self Help Service Corps field supervisor, Mr. Fred Hirsch, and also with trainee Mary Henderson.

They, too, are being paid with poverty funds. Therefore, the assurances given me that no union organizing would be done by Self Help Service Corps trainees were falsely based. Thus, the school in Morgan Hill and federal tax money are supporting at least three persons engaged in union organizing activity.

The California Center for Community Development at Del Rey, which received the original poverty grants and subcontracted for operation of the Morgan Hill school with the Self Help Service Corps, is constantly on the fringes and sometimes in the midst of California's labor movement, and the office of Economic Opportunity is always there as its willing and eager hand-maiden. There is even cause to suspect that taxpayers' dollars have been used by the CCCD to purchase property for a union hiring hall to be built in Delano.

I repeat that all of these activities are perfectly proper, but not with taxpayers' money. The job of the Federal Government should be to insure fairness in labor relations and give no advantage to either side. If it is to subsidize one side, it should subsidize the other. In my opinion, neither alternative, should be followed.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

Q. - I retired four years ago when I reached age 65, and I have been receiving old-age benefits. I did continue doing some work until this year. My doctor now tells me I am disabled. Can I receive disability benefits?

A. - No. Disability benefits are only payable to workers who became disabled prior to age 65. Since you retired at age 65, the amount of your benefit is the same as if you had become disabled when you were age 65. A worker may not receive both old-age benefits and disability benefits.

Q. - I am a 59-year-old widow and I am disabled. Am I eligible for Medicare?

A. - No. You must be at least 65 years of age to be eligible for Medicare.

Q. - I signed up for Medicare and have received my card; however, I will continue to work and earn over $5,000 a year. Can I get full Medicare benefits?

A. - Yes. The amount of your earnings has no effect on your Medicare eligibility.

Q. - I have heard a lot about the deadline for signing up for Medicare. My 65th birthday will be on March 10, 1967. When can I sign up?

A. - You should sign up within the three months before your 65th birthday, if you wish your doctor bill coverage to begin with the month of your birthday. However you have until three months after the month of your birthday to enroll. Hospital insurance coverage in either case, becomes effective with the month of your 65th birthday.

If you enroll during the three months after your birthday, doctor bill coverage will not begin until one to three months following your application.

College presents reenactment of Lincoln-Douglas debates

The historic Lincoln-Douglas debates of 1858 will be re-enacted on the stage of the West Valley College auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Friday, April 14, when the college's office of community services will present "The Rivalry" by Norman Corwin.

It is of historical interest that this dynamic production dealing with Abraham Lincoln is to be presented at West Valley College auditorium exactly 102 years to the day of Lincoln's death.

The play, hailed by New York critics as "exhilarating theater" and "absorbing, pulsating history," enjoyed a lengthy Broadway run and a successful 72-week cross-country tour.

This production, presented by the Players Production Company of Los Angeles is currently in the second year of a 30-city tour.

The play is most timely in that the famed debates centered on an issue still arousing national concern today--the rights of Negro Americans to freedom and full citizenship.

Corwin digs deep into the complex personalities of the two great opponents. The result is a play that casts new light on the Great Emancipator, then only an obscure ex-Congressman, and also on Sen. Stephen A. Douglas, "the Little Giant" and the front runner for the 1860 Democratic presidential nomination, as well as on his wife, Adele.

John Anderson stars as the backwoods Lincoln, master of homespun oratory. He has appeared on Broadway in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" and in "The Iceman Cometh" on the West Coast.

Steven Gravers is Douglas. He won the Chicago Critics Award for his performance in "Detective Story" and appeared with Paul Muni and Marlon Brando in "A Flag is Born."

Adele Douglas appeared in "Merrily We Roll Along" on Broadway, and with Clare Booth Luce in "The Women."

"The Rivalry" directed by Robert Nichols, features a solo behind-the-scenes brass band to lend authentic "campaign atmosphere" to the Great Debate.

General Admission tickets, which sell for $1.00 each, and information can be obtained through the Office of Community Services, West Valley College, telephone 379-1733, extension 48. Student tickets with a student body card will sell for 25 cents.

West Valley College student to work as guide at Expo 67

Sheri Crawford, 21, has resigned as student body secretary at West

Valley College to serve as a hostess and guide at the United States

Pavilion at Expo 67, the Canadian Centennial Exposition which opens Apr. 28 in Montreal.

Miss Crawford, who lives at 2991 Magliocco Dr., San Jose, was born in Leesburg, Va., but has been a resident of this area since she was an infant. She was a graduate of Camden High School, and is a music major, playing the flute and piccolo.

She applied for the hostess position after reading about it in Newsweek Magazine. Considerable correspondence ensued with the commissioner in charge of the U.S. Pavilion, for about six months.

There were in all, 1400 applicants, she said, and about 50 finalists, one representing each state.

Applicants had to be bi-lingual (English and French), and were examined on attitudes toward such matters as race.

"We were also asked about our weight in relation to our height, to be sure that we looked presentable in representing the United States in the Exposition, which marks the Centennial Year for the Confederation of Canada."

Miss Crawford leaves in early April for a four-week training period, during which she will learn about the geography of the immediate Montreal area, information concerning the Exposition, location of other pavilions, and U.S. history.

She will serve as an information hostess, as a guide through the U.S. Pavilion, as an official hostess at dinners for diplomats and government officials.

For her efforts she receives $90 per week plus room and board, tailored uniforms and able shoes for walking."

OFF TO CANADIAN EXPOSITION--Sheri Crawford, 21, West Valley College student body secretary, points to Montreal, Canada, on the map, by way of informing Miss Jan Winton, WVC coordinator of women's activities and Dr. Wallace W. Hall, college president, that she is departing this area. Miss Crawford has been selected as an official hostess and tour guide for the U.S. Pavilion at Expo 67, the Canadian Exposition.

DANCE COMMITTEE--The parents of children attending Joseph M. McKinnon School for Retarded are sponsoring their third annual dance on Saturday, April 8, at Letterman's Hall, 425 N. 4th St., San Jose.

Pete Demie and his band will play. Henry Batis of Campbell, seated, is dance chairman. Assisting are Lynn Sisemore (center) and Ferrie Hogan. Tickets will be available at the door. Proceeds will help support the hot lunch program and much needed equipment.

MORE ABOUT Tree-planting

den Club with city assistance in the beautification of the median parkway on Hamilton Ave. Club members planted 75 trees in the parkway last Saturday.

Campbell Jaycees have also indicated their interest in undertaking special beautification projects, including the possibility of developing attractive entrance signs at five of the intersections (1. Campbell at Bascom; 2. Winchester at Hamilton; 3. Bascom at Hamilton; 4. Division at Winchester and W. Campbell at Fulton) that are considered "entrances" to the city.

The Jaycees are also studying the possibility of installing a sign made from rocks spelling out the name "Campbell" to be located on the east bank of Los Gatos Creek north of Campbell Ave.

Councilman Ed Rogers, who is also chairman of the City Council civic improvement committee, will preside tonight at citizens beautification committee meeting.

He was named chairman at the first meeting of the group when Mrs. Ruth Hartman, of the Campbell Garden Club, was elected vice-chairman. Carl F. Kuhn, administrative aide to City Manager Bob Stephens, is secretary of the citizens organization.

Fire Chief George Maxwell at tonight's meeting will also outline the clean-up program for the city which was instituted by the fire department a number of years ago and is now coordinated with the communitywide program.

One of the phases of the clean-up project will be the semi-annual free trash pickup service that is offered by the Green Valley Disposal Co. (formerly Los Gatos Scavenger Co.). City residents may place their trash on the curb the day the service is offered.

Maxwell said that it is also planned to have one day when residents will be allowed to use the scavenger company's disposal area without charge.

Campbell Hospital receives three year accreditation

Campbell Community Hospital has been accredited for a full three-year period by the Board of Commissioners on Accreditation of Hospitals.

Word of the accreditation has been received by E. E. Admire, administrator; Robert Brydon, president of the hospital; and Wayne O. Buck, N.D. chief of staff, from John D. Porterfield, director of the Board of Commissioners, with headquarters in Chicago, Ill.

The accreditation is the result of the survey and evaluation of the hospital conducted in January for the Board by Theodore J. Hughes, M.D., field representative.

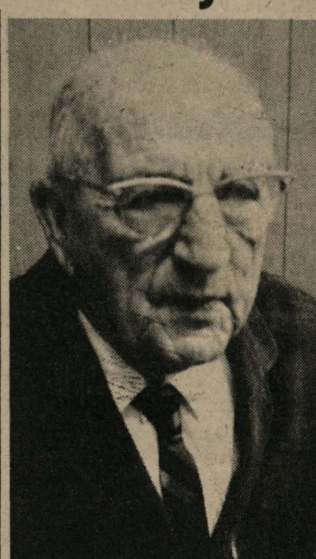

The officials of the hospital expressed gratification at the news of the accreditation.

Longtime resident of Campbell will celebrate 90th natal day

Charles De Selle, a resident of Campbell since 1902, will celebrate his 90th birthday tomorrow, with good wishes from his neighbors, children and former employers.

Still looking fit and maintaining his home at 63 N. Second St., De Selle visits regularly with teenagers and oldsters alike, who appreciate his quick wit and geniality.

A widower, De Selle retired after 15 years as head custodian at Campbell High School. It was there he became a good friend of the boys and girls at the school. Prior to that he had worked for the J.C. Ainsley Canning Co. and the George

CHARLES DE SELLE

E. Hyde Canning Co.

He has always been mechanically inclined and is "handy" at carpentry and with all tools. He built the house he still lives in.

De Selle is the father of five children still living in the area. They are Dorothy Curl of Pacific Grove, Ellis De Selle of Sacramento, Raymond De Selle of Campbell, Melvin De Selle of San Jose and Stan De Selle of Saratoga.

In his younger days, De Selle served on the Board of Trustees of the Campbell Union School District and on the Campbell Sanitation District.

He is a member of Charity Lodge, Campbell F & M, and is a past master of the lodge.

Tax collector issues reminder about April 10

Santa Clara County Tax Collector Leonard E. Engeman has distributed a friendly reminder to owners of real property that local taxes are due before 5 p.m. on Monday, April 10.

After that time Engeman said, taxes become delinquent, without exception, and until May 30, 1967 are subject to a 6% penalty plus $3 for public advertising of delinquency.

The county tax chief said taxpayers on property in all cities other than Palo Alto, in addition to owners of property on unincorporated land, could send their payments by mail, or pay at 70 W. Hedding St., San Jose, 95110 in person.

Office hours of the tax collector's office are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Engeman pointed out that the office would not be open Saturdays.

He also noted that the state revenue and tax code states that publication of delinquent taxes must be in the name of the assessee as of March 1, 1966, a year ago.

Letters to the Editor

Dear George:

Designation of the week of April 2-9 as Chamber of Commerce Week marks the fourth such recognition which has been given to the Chamber of Commerce movement.

Proclamations have been made by Governor Reagan and Mayor Doetsch which have called particular attention to our own local Chamber of Commerce.

We believe these tributes are well-earned, and we cannot help but wonder why this recognition has been so long in coming.

Perhaps part of the answer lies in the fact that, as someone has suggested, sometimes the Chamber does its job so well that it is taken for granted by both members and the public. Also, too often the Chamber of Commerce movement is thought to be concerned solely with the advancement of commerce and industry.

Even if this were true, then the Chamber would certainly deserve our accolade, for a healthy business climate is essential to the welfare of a free society. Actually, Chambers of Commerce in Communities throughout our state and nation have exhibited a remarkable diversity of interests.

To quote William Adams, II, CCE, President of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives, "Voluntarism, is at the heart of the American tradition and Chambers of Commerce are one of the organizations most firmly devoted to the effectiveness of joint cooperative action in the solution of all major problems. . . at local, state and national levels, as may be most fitting."

Teamwork through and with Chambers of Commerce can bring practical, lasting answers to each of the challenging problems and opportunities being faced in the United States and other nations.

The many good deeds and worthy projects undertaken by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce certainly lend substance to Adams' words. Particularly, we have in mind the Congress for Community Progress.

The people of Campbell join Mayor Doetsch in saluting our Chamber of Commerce. Best wishes from your friends and neighbors!

Voters in school districts go to polls Tuesday, April 18

Voters on Tuesday, April 18, will go to the polls to name trustees in the various school districts in the area and also will vote again on the question of unification of the Campbell Union High School District.

Although the five elementary districts involved (Campbell, Cambrian, Moreland, Union and Burbank) turned down unification two years ago, the current law requires the question to be presented again.

Observers close to the scene feel that unification again will be defeated, basically because of the tremendous size of the proposed unified district.

The two incumbent trustees in the Campbell Union (elementary) School District, William Parton and Theodore Sedgwick, are being challenged by four other candidates, including Mrs. Sara Fischer, widow of Jack Fischer, longtime San Tomas School principal, and Dr. Richard MacQuiddy, former Campbell school district psychologist.

The other two candidates are Bert Little, a draftsman, and Bernard L. Weddel, CPA. E. M. (Doc) Arends and William L. Murphy, long-time members of the Campbell Union High School District, are seeking reelection. Mrs. Miriam R. Resnick, a housewife, has filed for the board.

The three incumbent trustees in area #3 of the West Valley Junior College District, Robert Brydon, Bill Homan, and Robert Sorensen, are being challenged by Richard D. Johnson, Roland F. Lee, Frederick R. Long and Bernard L. Weddel. In area #1, Donald E. Lindstrom, incumbent, is opposed by August R. Winstein.

PIANO RECITAL

Mrs. Virginia Rutherford of Campbell will present twelve piano students in recital on Sunday, April 9 at 5 p.m. at the SHERMAN & CLAY MUSIC STORE, 50 N. WINCHESTER BLVD. near Stevens Creek.

Those performing will be Sally Shomberg, David Lasso, Kathleen Cusimano, John Uniat, Kathleen Cooke, Sherrie Richardson, Danny Radusinovich, Pamela Noland, Diane Fink, Robert Millfelt, and Susan Smith.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

president of the board of Campbell Community Hospital, congratulates Dr. Wayne O. Buck, chief of the medical staff, upon hearing that the hospital has been granted a full three-year accreditation by the Board of Commissioners on Accreditation of Hospitals, a national group.

County's three water districts to consolidate by next year

Santa Clara County's three water districts will be consolidated early next year to achieve greater operational efficiency and avoid duplication of effort if a proposal now under consideration is adopted.

Consolidation has been recommended for years by a variety of knowledgeable sources including governmental agencies, County Grand Juries, the Taxpayers Association and management consulting firms.

Last year the interested agencies created a special nine-member study committee to develop conditions of water district consolidation.

Composed of three members each of the Board of Supervisors, which is the governing body of the Santa Clara County Flood Control and Water District, the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District, and the South Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District, the committee drafted a bill to achieve consolidation which was introduced March 7 in the Legislature and co-authored by the entire county legislative delegation.

The proposal would require approval by the State Legislature, and is to be heard April 12 by the Senate Committee on Local Government, chaired by Senator Clark Bradley of San Jose.

The bill would provide the new combined district with a seven-man governing board, one to be elected from each of the county's five supervisorial districts and the remaining two appointed by the Board of Supervisors from within the boundaries of each of the two existing water conservation districts. Initially, the water district board would be appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

Budget approval of the new district would remain with the Board of Supervisors.

The proposed legislation provides that the Board of Directors of either Water Conservation District may call an election to ratify consolidation, or that voters within either district may force an election by filing a petition containing at least 2 per cent of the district's registered voters. South Valley Water Conservation District directors have said they will put the consolidation proposal before the electorate.

IMPORTATION

Currently, the County Flood Control and Water District administers the county's water importation program which includes a growing network of pipelines to distribute water imported by the State's South Bay Aqueduct. In coming years this system will include water importations from the federal government's San Felipe Project by way of a 10-1/2 mile long tunnel through Pacheco Pass.

This system will distribute raw water for agricultural use or ground water percolation and treated water to municipal agencies.

The district, formed in 1951, also constructs and maintains county-wide flood control works.

The Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District, created in 1929 as the county's initial water agency, covers the valley floor north of Morgan Hill and collects and stores runoff behind eight strategically located dams. Water then is transferred to percolation areas and used to recharge the underground basin. The district also receives untreated South Bay Aqueduct water from the Flood Control District for percolation purposes.

The South Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District performs a similar function for the South County and operates two reservoirs.

Observed the 1965 County Grand Jury in a plea for consolidation:

"In reviewing the history of the water agencies, the original need for each becomes apparent, particularly since they were each created to perform different functions.

"However, with the advent of the two water importation programs, with its multiplicity of contracts, financing plans, and engineering facilities, it appears that there is much overlapping and duplication of effort."

Other proponents of water district consolidation emphasize that the result would be a better public understanding of the county's water problems and financial savings accomplished through comprehensive area-wide planning and administration.

Consolidation, according to those most closely involved, would make possible complete coordination of local and imported water supplies; would facilitate reservoir recreational development, and would coordinate flood control with water conservation---in addition to the money-saving avoidance of duplication of administrative effort.

Mitty High to open new class

A new freshman class is to be added to Archbishop Mitty High School in the fall of 1967 and the placement examination for selection of its members will be given at the high school on April 8 at 9:30 a.m.

September of 1967 will be the first time that the school will have students enrolled in all four divisions.

From a start in temporary quarters in 1964 at Queen of Apostles School with an enrollment of about 175 freshman boys, there will be more than 700 in attendance this coming year. New classrooms will be ready for the fall term.

Students will be offered college preparatory and general academic courses in the marianist conducted school. Mitty High has a full athletic program and a band. There is an examination fee of $8.00 for the placement test. No pre-registration is required.

Refreshments will be served by the Mitty Mothers' Guild to the parents of the examinees. Students will assist in all areas. For further information write or phone the high school.

ONE YEAR AGO

Richard Salice (left) turned over the ownership of the Aero Drugs to Allan C. Blaine (right) and wished him the very best. Now, Aero Drugs is the oldest operating pharmacy in Campbell. Operating since 1947, Aero Drugs is rapidly becoming the "elder-progressive" drug store in the West Valley area, under the direction of its enterprising, young owner.

FACE-LIFTING

As may be seen by comparing the photo above, and the photo displayed in the pharmacy's advertisement, the progressive mind of Allan Blaine, has been busily at work in making the "landmark" more attractive to the customer, and a more lasting impression on the many people traveling past its doors daily, along Winchester Boulevard. The above picture was taken last year at the time of the ownership exchange.

READY TO SERVE

The interior shot above, portrays, the availability the customer has to the pharmacist. "Personal service, is a MUST in any public-customer relation", reported Allan Blaine, "and here at Aero Drugs we make that contact, as "Personal" as good taste dictates!" Progressive thinking, and good merchandising, are what make the "Oldest Drug Store" new, and satisfying to its many customers."
